CHAMBER THANKS SPONSORS FOR “COMING ALIVE” FOR SUMMER FESTIVAL 2005!

Following the Anguilla Chamber’s first troupe participation in the Summer Festival, executive director, Calvin Bartlett expressed his appreciation on behalf of the Chamber and its members, “It was really a fun day, great team work, and we would like to say special thanks to all who contributed to the Chamber’s participation in this year’s summer festival. A great big applause to our sponsors and in particular to the SJUBB Band from St. Maarten for their great performance and spontaneous networking with the Anguilla Chamber of Commerce.”

“The Chamber’s participation in carnival is a great demonstration from members of teamwork, organization and networking. It was an opportunity to give back to the community by supporting such an annual event. The parade was fun and energizing,” ACOCI Secretary, Barbara Owen of Caribbean Cable Communications said. “As we paraded, we heard chants of ‘Bravo, fantastic, great... You guys really look good!’”

“It was really a pleasure to support the Chamber and better yet ... to get a chance to actively participate in this event we had a blast!” said Andrew Niles of Scotiabank of Anguilla. “It was my first time ever in a carnival. It was a great experience. Let’s start preparing for next year’s summer festival,” said Chamber Vice President, Dr Louis Bardfield of the Anguilla Vision Center. “The Chamber was definitely ‘vibrant’ and ‘alive’ with our pirates and pearls this year!”

THE RESULTS ARE IN... 2005 BUSINESS SURVEY AUGUST 24TH PRESENTATION ENGLISH ROSE/THE NEXT LEVEL 5:30 TO 7:00 P.M.

With thanks to every member of the business community who participated in the 2005 Anguilla Business Survey, the Chamber will host a presentation of the results by Melinda Goddard, principal of ClieTtell Consulting, who has volunteered her services and sponsored the interviews to conduct this survey for a second year. The results – and the businesses named “best” – will be presented upstairs at the English Rose (The Next Level) on Wednesday, August 24th at 5:30 P.M. followed by light snacks and networking meeting in air-conditioned comfort at this ACOCI member’s new upstairs location.

CUSTOMER SATISFACTION SEMINAR CLASS IN JULY

The Chamber would like to thank the July 2005 participants and Melinda Goddard of ClieTtell Consulting for a successful seminar on July 21st. The class included 10 representatives of ANGLEC, Cable & Wireless, Changes Inc/Dream Anguilla, Irie Life, and Temenos Anguilla ~ A St Regis Retreat. The participants are shown above returning from their lunch at the Old House Restaurant.
